NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

As November arrives, we find ourselves in a beautiful time of transition, as fall gradually gives way to winter and the days grow shorter and cooler. This month also gives us meaningful opportunities to pause, reflect, and connect with one another. Veteran's Day reminds us to honor and express our gratitude to the men and women who have served our country and protected the freedoms we value. Thanksgiving offers another special reminder of the importance of family, friendship, and community. Here at The Madison Senior Center, we know that staying socially connected is an important part of healthy aging, and sharing a conversation, a meal, an activity, or simply a smile with others can brighten our days and strengthen our sense of belonging. As we bridge the seasons together, I encourage everyone to make time to celebrate the traditions that bring us joy, and embrace the warmth and companionship of our Madison community. See you at The Senior Center!

Austin

SPECIAL EVENTS

MSC ART GALLERY

Ron Imbriglio Art Show, October 1-November 13

A lifelong resident of the of Connecticut shoreline, Ron Imbriglio paints what he sees. His first solo show features works from his 70+ years as an artist. His oils, pastels, and watercolors explore the beauty of nature and creation both locally and from his travels across the USA.

Coastal Camera Art Show, November 23-December 28

In 1990, a group of members approached the Director of Senior Services at the time, "Diffy" Smith, about forming a camera club under the Madison Senior Center. This led to the creation of the Coastal Camera Club, which eventually moved from its original home at The Depot to the Senior Center Cafe. The club's purpose is to foster the science and art of photography while helping members develop their technical skills. This is achieved through guest speakers, workshops, and critiques where members share their work for constructive feedback. Our current show at the senior center features pieces evaluated by an outside panel of judges and highlights various scheduled activities. Please stop in to see the winning entries!

CAN WE TALK?

with Dr. Margo Merin

Comedienne Joanne Rivers would say: "Can we talk?" MSC is saying the same thing. Why?—because it's without question that seniors have acquired a mega amount of knowledge, overcome diverse challenges, and confronted a myriad of human emotions—and have much to say. One hour each week, participants will have an opportunity, in a non-judgmental setting, to share thoughts and feelings about what it means to be a senior, how to reconcile earlier life identity with current day realities, and how to create and maintain a life with purpose and satisfaction, regardless of life challenges. Laughter is always encouraged.

Wednesdays, November 4 - December 16 • (No Class 11/11, 11/25) • 10:00AM • Cost For 5 Classes: MM$53 / NMM$63

CELEBRATING 11 YEARS OF DEDICATION

Chef Kevin,
For 11 wonderful years, you have been such a valued and important part of the Madison Senior Center family. Your dedication, hard work, and care have made a lasting impact on our members, staff, and the community.
Your delicious meals have brought people together, created countless memories, and added something special to so many Senior Center events and gatherings. Through the Meals on Wheels program, your hard work has also reached beyond our walls, providing nutritious and thoughtfully prepared meals to members of our community who rely on this important service. Day after day, you have put care into every meal you prepare, knowing that what you do makes a meaningful difference in the lives of others. Your commitment to the Meals on Wheels program has helped ensure that our participants receive not only a meal, but a little comfort and care delivered right to their door.
Beyond the wonderful food, it is your kindness, warmth, and commitment that we appreciate most. Thank you for 11 years of service, dedication, and for being such an important part of the Madison Senior Center.
We are incredibly grateful for everything you do and for the positive difference you make in our community each and every day.
Here's to celebrating 11 years of making the Madison Senior Center a little brighter—and a lot more delicious!
With sincere appreciation,
The Madison Senior Center
